that will enhance and extend the quality of life in our communities.

Western University of Health Sciences

President's Message

A lifetime of hard work, dedication and determination has brought each of you to this pivotal moment in your life. Congratulations on a job well done!

I encourage you to celebrate this achievement with all those who helped you reach this extraordinary milestone — family, friends, fellow students, and mentors.

This was an especially challenging year as the University carefully navigated the pandemic, and you showed great resolve and courage in completing your academic and clinical work. You make WesternU proud even as the pandemic etched its place in your educational experiences and in world events.

Commencement is the acme for our entire University. We celebrate the effort and success of some 1,000 students poised to join their colleagues among the health professions. We revel in the joy and excitement of our graduates, their families and loved ones, and the entire WesternU community who supported you along the way.

Your education prepares you to enhance and extend the quality of life in our communities. The protection and improvement of public health is “what we do.” There is no better testament to our mission than forgoing a treasure for the greater good.

The Class of 2022 exemplifies all the qualities that make WesternU a special place, and your institutional legacy is assured to be forever known as the senior class that persevered through a worldwide pandemic. The Class of 2022 is also especially dear to me as my first graduating class as President!

But your journey continues. Commencement celebrates the important end to one part of your education, but it also means “a beginning or start.” You will learn a great deal more as you take your place among the healers of the world, with all the opportunities and responsibilities this brings. Your skilled hands and compassionate hearts will help foster wellness for individuals and communities the world over.

I am honored to officiate — and celebrate — this Commencement with you. I very much look forward to hearing of your many accomplishments as one of our alumni.

Again, congratulations for your attainments today and for the bright future.

Western University of Health Sciences

History

Western University of Health Sciences embarked on a special mission when it opened its doors in 1977 as the College of Osteopathic Medicine of the Pacific: educating tomorrow's health care professionals with a combination of scientific excellence and a humanistic, compassionate approach to patient care.

From an inaugural class of 36 students in 1978, enrollment in the College of Osteopathic Medicine of the Pacific grew to more than 400 by 1986. That same year, the addition of the Master of Science in Health Professions Education program paved the way for what would become the College of Allied Health Professions, which was renamed the College of Health Sciences in 2018. Meanwhile, the University continued acquiring former Pomona Mall buildings, remodeling them for educational use.

The institution kept growing over the next decade, with enrollment jumping dramatically in 1996, when the addition of a College of Pharmacy necessitated a name change to Western University of Health Sciences.

1998 was another landmark year for WesternU, as the College of Graduate Nursing was founded in March, and the College of Veterinary Medicine — the first veterinary college in Southern California — was established just five months later.

The first foundation-up construction at WesternU was the Veterinary Clinical Center, which opened in August 2008. One year later, the University welcomed inaugural classes in three new colleges — Dental Medicine, Optometry, and Podiatric Medicine. In conjunction with this remarkable academic expansion, the University further enlarged the physical campus, erecting a 180,000 square-foot Health Education Center, a Patient Care Center, and a 600-car parking garage. A ninth school, the Graduate College of Biomedical Sciences, welcomed its inaugural class in January 2010.

Were not all this growth sufficient, the University ventured north in 2011, opening the WesternU Oregon campus with 400 students at an additional site of the College of Osteopathic Medicine of the Pacific in Lebanon. The University is actively planning further expansion in Lebanon as a key part of the overall WesternU Strategic Plan, “Achieving Aspirations,” with the College of Health Sciences welcoming the inaugural Oregon cohort of Physical Therapy students in July 2021 and adding an Occupational Therapy program to the Lebanon campus in 2022.

2016 also was an important milestone in WesternU history, as the University welcomed just the second president in its history. Upon the retirement of Founding President Philip Pumerantz in 2015, after a national search the University Board of Trustees appointed Daniel R. Wilson, MD, PhD, as president. Dr. Wilson, an internationally distinguished psychiatrist, anthropologist and academic administrator, took office in July 2016 and among other major accomplishments led the University through the worldwide COVID pandemic, sustaining WesternU's exceptional mission across all Colleges with strategy, financial management, and plans for growth.

In October 2020, Dr. Wilson announced he would step down from the presidency on June 30, 2021. The WesternU Board of Trustees appointed Sylvia Manning, PhD, as Interim President until a successor to Dr. Wilson could be found, and in the fall of 2021 announced that Robin Farias-Eisner, MD, PhD, MBA, would become the third president in WesternU history effective March 1, 2022. President Farias-Eisner joins WesternU after serving Creighton University in Omaha, Nebraska, as Director of the Henry Lynch Comprehensive Cancer Research Center and Chief Academic Officer for the School of Medicine. Prior to Creighton, he worked for many years as a professor, administrator, and chair of gynecologic oncology at UCLA.

Today, WesternU is home to more than 3,800 students in 21 programs, as well as 1,200 employees, and is one of the most thriving enterprises in the Pomona and Inland Valleys of Southern California and the mid-Willamette Valley of Oregon.

President's Biography

Robin Farias-Eisner, MD, PhD, MBA

President, Western University of Health Sciences

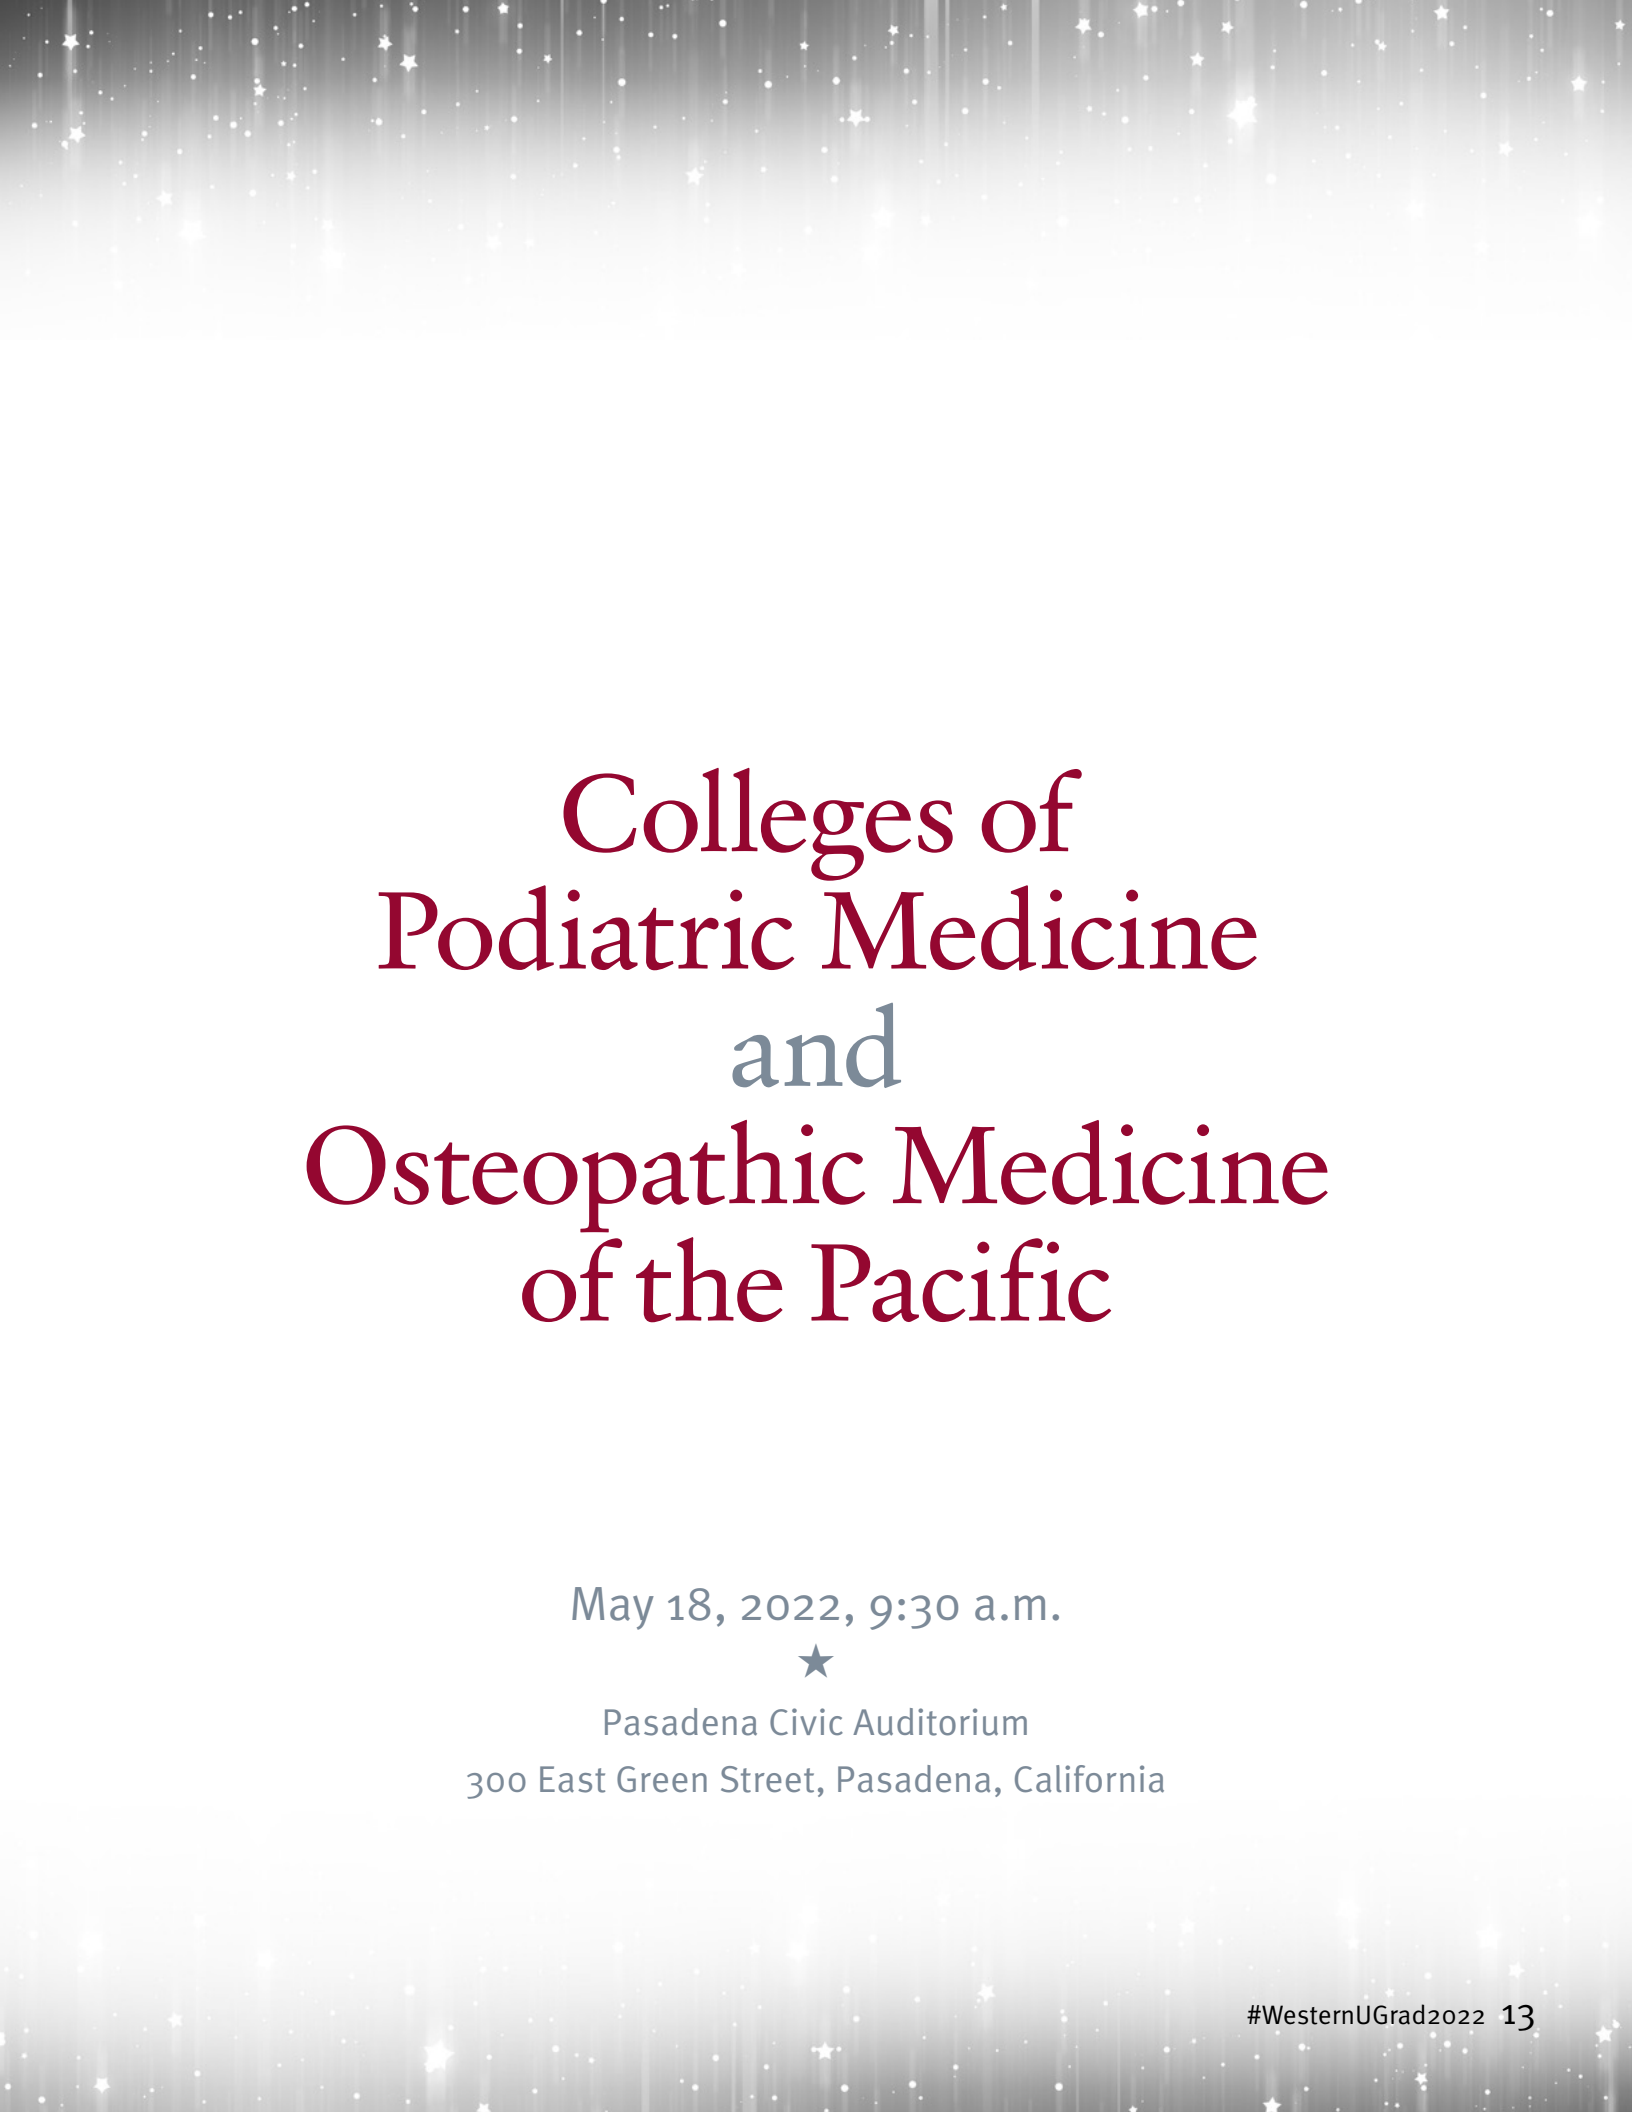

Western University of Health Sciences (WesternU) welcomed its third president, Robin Farias-Eisner, MD, PhD, MBA, on March 1, 2022, during a transformational moment in health care in which opportunities abound for WesternU and its students. He brings a dedication to uniting and bonding with the communities of Pomona, California and Lebanon, Oregon.

Dr. Farias-Eisner joins WesternU most recently from Creighton University in Omaha, Nebraska, where he was the Director of the Henry Lynch Comprehensive Cancer Research Center and Chief Academic Officer in the School of Medicine. He was also Associate Dean of Women's Health and Professor and Chairman of the Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology at the School of Medicine at Creighton.

Prior to his appointment at Creighton, Dr. Farias-Eisner spent much of his career at the University of California, Los Angeles. In 1992, he completed a fellowship in Gynecologic Oncology and spent the next 30 years working to improve the health of women in underserved communities in South Los Angeles who were critically ill, many of whom were battling cancer diagnoses. Throughout his career, he has been a pioneer in surgical procedures being used to treat gynecologic malignancies. Not only a skilled clinician, Dr. Farias-Eisner is also a skilled researcher and fundraiser.

Dr. Farias-Eisner, who is of Latin origin and fluent in French, Italian, Spanish, and English, has a decorated academic pedigree that includes a Bachelor of Science in Biochemistry from UCLA, a medical doctorate degree from the Royal College of Surgeons in Dublin, Ireland, a PhD in Molecular Biology from UCLA, and an MBA from the Graziadio School of Business Management at Pepperdine University.

The background of the entire slide is a soft-focus image of a starry night sky, with numerous small, bright white stars scattered across a dark blue and black gradient. The stars vary in size and brightness, creating a sense of depth and wonder.

College of Podiatric Medicine

Dean's Message

Dear College of Podiatric Medicine Graduating Class of 2022:

Congratulations Graduates! As educators, we are not supposed to have favorites, but I wear my heart on my sleeve, so it is easy to see the DPM Class of 2022 is one of my favorites. I worked closely with many of you to revamp our curriculum and improve the educational process within our college. We did it, working together. So, I think it is fitting that as you begin your professional life, I step down as your dean. Closing the loop.

In 1987 when I began my podiatric medicine studies, you may be surprised to find out that a residency program was not a requirement in most states. In podiatric medicine and surgery, the most advanced fixation device at that time was a k-wire. Now 33 years later, graduates of this year's residency class are joining orthopedic practices after three-year residencies, specializing through fellowships, and even performing ankle implants. It is our version of progressing from the Model T to the spaceship. I honestly do not know what is next, but I am excited for you to find out!

Just like medical school, residency is challenging but rewarding. On my first day of residency in New Haven, Connecticut, I was assigned to General Surgery with the Yale residents. I was terrified! Thirty-six hours later, when I finished my first call, I was exhausted, but I realized that if I was willing to learn, there were physicians who would want to teach me. Advance 20 years later, after joining the Orthopedic Department at the University of Texas Health Sciences Center in San Antonio. I said to my supervisor, "Aren't we like the chickens in the coop with the foxes," meaning the orthopedic surgeons. He looked perplexed and said, "No, Kathy. They need us." And I soon found out what he meant. My second realization: If I have valuable skills and knowledge to offer, other health care providers will accept my services to better their patients' lives.

That is the formula, my young colleagues:

Always be eager to learn. Always be eager to serve.

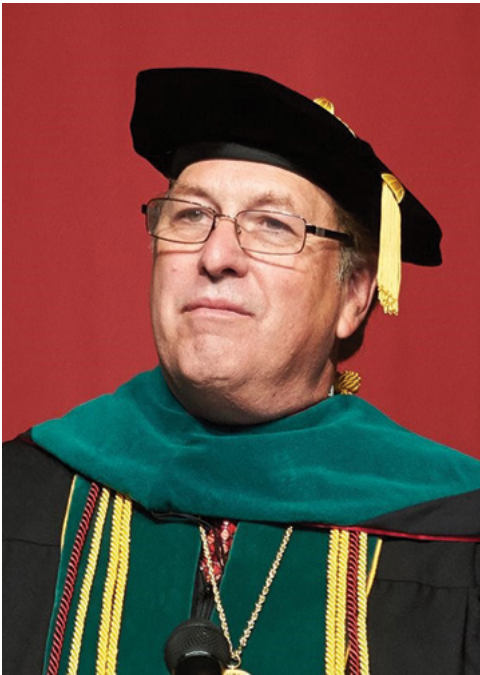

Now go out and live your best lives!

Acting Dean's Message

Dear COMP and COMP-Northwest DO Graduating Class of 2022:

Congratulations to the Class of 2022 on your graduation from Medical School. This culmination of hard work, dedication, and perseverance represents a tremendous milestone in your life. On behalf of all of us at COMP and COMP-Northwest, let me join your families and friends in sharing our pride in all of you for this hard-earned accomplishment.

Over these last four years you experienced unprecedented events no other medical school graduates ever had to endure during your continued journey in the house of medicine. The global pandemic created the backdrop for societal changes that was never before experienced by medical students. The global lockdown resulted in social isolation from family members and support groups, to include your classmates and faculty. You had to adapt to the challenge of an online learning format, which is especially noteworthy given the hand-on requirements of our curriculum. As a medical student entering into your clinical years, you had to adapt to online virtual training for a few months, then prepare for clinical training in all disciplines of medicine both in-patient and out-patient settings, while avoiding contracting this pathogen. Numerous other events created an impediment to your medical education, some of you had to endure a once in a hundred-year devastating fire with displacement of yourselves or families.

Your class embraced these challenges and developed a resiliency that will carry with you during the lifelong journey as you pursue your medical career. You not only endured, but your class leadership also promoted the inclusion of diversity and equity throughout the curriculum. Despite these impediments, all of you worked extremely hard to assure your preparation was complete for your next phase of medical training and your medical residency. Again, my congratulations to your class with the outstanding Match and placement into residencies.

Each of you were carefully selected to attend COMP and COMP-Northwest, and each of you are more than qualified and prepared for this next phase and journey in your career. You will stand shoulder to shoulder with other medical school graduates, and you will shine. Your residency will be your next phase in your career, and you will hone your clinical skills based on your selected field of study. You must however begin to adopt a “work-life” balance. Although the rigors of residency will be tremendous, especially in the beginning, you must begin to take time for yourself, your family, and your friends. Continue to nurture these relationships with your colleagues, they will be lifelong.

From all of us at COMP and COMP-Northwest, we wish you all the very best with a lifetime of good health, wellness, and professional fulfillment as you care for your patients and positively impact your communities.

Please always remember as Dr. Crone always stated, “at the end of every thought, every action, every deed, there is your patient”.

We are proud of you! Congratulations, Graduates!

The Podiatric Physician's Oath

I do solemnly swear to my God, on my honor, to those who have taught me, and by all things that I hold sacred, that as a practitioner of Podiatric Medicine, I shall abide by the following precepts:

I shall, above all, hold paramount the welfare of my patient, regardless of fee or favor. I shall neither prescribe nor give any treatment or drug which will be detrimental to his or her well-being.

I shall endeavor to uphold the dignity of the professional way of life, the aims of which are to render public service.

I shall cherish those who have taught me, holding high their principles and precepts, and I pledge that I shall do everything that I am able to do to promote and to protect the profession of Podiatric Medicine, and to aid my fellow practitioners.

In swearing to this oath, I hereby dedicate myself in service to the health of humanity, and I hold as my goal the relief of pain and suffering.

If I keep this oath, may I receive God's guidance in the practice of my art, and may I enjoy my life in the respect of all men and women.

The Osteopathic Oath

I do hereby affirm my loyalty to the profession I am about to enter.

I will be mindful always of my great responsibility to preserve the health and life of my patients, to retain their confidence and respect both as a physician and a friend who will guard their secrets with scrupulous honor and fidelity, to perform faithfully my professional duties, to employ only those recognized methods of treatment consistent with good judgment and with my skill and ability, keeping in mind always nature's laws and the body's inherent capacity for recovery.

I will be ever vigilant in aiding the general welfare of the community, sustaining its laws and institutions, not engaging in those practices which will in any way bring shame or discredit upon myself or my profession.

I will give no drugs for deadly purposes to any person, though it be asked of me.

I will endeavor to work in accord with my colleagues in a spirit of progressive cooperation and never by word or by act cast imputations upon them or their rightful practices.

I will look with respect and esteem upon all those who have taught me my art.

To my college I will be loyal and strive always for its best interests and for the interests of the students who will come after me.

I will be ever alert to further the application of basic biologic truths to the healing arts and to develop the principles of osteopathic medicine as taught by my profession.

In the presence of this gathering I bind myself to my oath.

Dean's Message

Dear DMD Graduating Class of 2022:

Congratulations Graduates! As you prepare to walk across the stage recognizing the award of your DMD degree, it is appropriate to briefly reflect on the journey to this day and take a glimpse forward to your bright future.

Although your education started under what are now considered ordinary times, your class's entire clinical educational experience took place under the shadow of a world-wide pandemic. It is impossible to catalog the many changes and modifications required to meet the challenge of the times in this brief congratulatory message. In the end, your adaptability, persistence, and resilience were critical elements leading to your success.

The health care world you will enter is also changed from the pre-pandemic era – dramatically so in some cases. On the first day of your dental school experience, I noted that dentistry is a 'challenging, yet rewarding profession.' That basic premise has not changed. Even as the challenges of the profession change in form and character, the responsiveness you have forged in the pandemic will serve you well. Your capacity to see the opportunities embedded in the challenges will serve as your way to open the door to the rewards the profession continues to offer, but as you know – you must walk through.

On behalf of the faculty, staff, and leadership of the College, we offer our continued support for your successful careers. As demonstrated over the past four years, the motto of, Your Success is Our Success has not been an empty phrase, but the foundation of our daily commitment to each of you. A commitment that continues as our latest alumni.

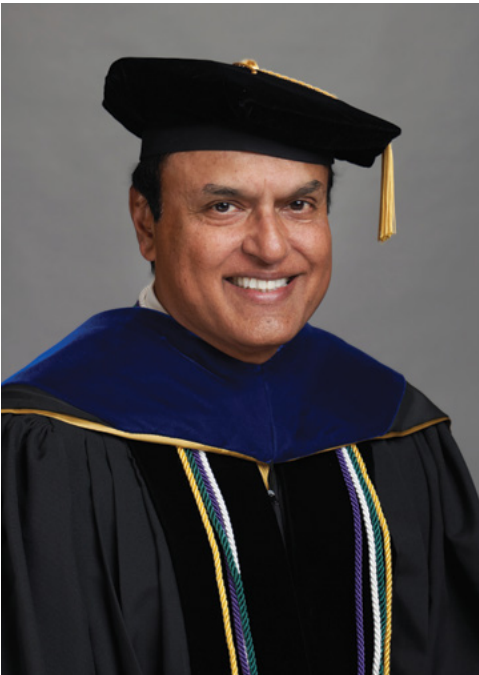

Today, we honor you as the DMD Class of 2022 - The Best Class Ever!

Dean's Message

Dear PharmD and MSPS Graduating Classes of 2022:

Congratulations Graduates! You have done it! Years of hard work under the most unusual circumstances of the pandemic, and here you are, ready to take on the world and begin the next phase of your life. Heartiest congratulations to all of you!

To our graduating Doctor of Pharmacy students, I say that you are now considered a highly trained health care professional with a singular purpose, and that is to improve the health and wellbeing of your patients. On top of your excellent didactic curricular experience, your training involved 2,300 hours of experiential education in a variety of patient care settings, and placement in over 1,200 clinical sites ranging from community pharmacies to health systems settings. During the past four years you have conducted various health fairs, participated in many philanthropic events, pharmacy societies, leadership events, to name a few, which benefited many in your community for which they are grateful. Always remember that your patient trusts you to keep them safe, healthy, and happy at all times!

To our graduating Master of Pharmaceutical Sciences students, I say that you have endured a grueling curriculum in education and research for the last two years, contributing to new knowledge in pharmaceutical sciences and learning advanced techniques in research. This experience has prepared you in many different ways. You now have doors open to choose from in the industry, PhD, or professional programs.

Regardless of the program you are graduating from today, always remember that it has been a team effort wherein your faculty and staff have spent endless hours to bring you up to this point. They have indeed given you the basic tools you will need to succeed in your life, and for that we owe them a great deal of gratitude! From here on out, wherever your path takes you, remember that you will forever be a part of our WesternU College of Pharmacy family; a proud graduate who, as you climb the ladders of success, will always remember where you came from. Our doors will always remain open for our graduates, and we will welcome you with open arms anytime you want to return to your alma mater.

Finally, as you prepare to take your final steps towards graduation, it may at first seem challenging; however, believing in yourself and armed with your degree in hand, you can take on any challenge that comes your way. Believe in Mahatma Gandhi's words of wisdom, "Be the change you want to see in the world."

On behalf of your beloved College of Pharmacy, you have my best wishes for the future! Congratulations, once again!

In Memoriam

Sripriya (“Priya”) Upadhyayula Patel was a healer by trade and by instinct. Following an early calling to medicine, Priya attended the Sri Ramachandra Institute of Higher Education and Research in Chennai, India, where she earned her Bachelor of Medicine and Bachelor of Surgery (MBBS) degree. Upon returning to the United States, Priya worked with her father, Ramesh Upadhyayula, to develop and support progressive outpatient initiatives in the independent pharmacy setting. Priya grew a powerful interest and appreciation for pharmacy practice and matriculated at the Western University of Health Sciences College of Pharmacy in 2019 with the goal of earning her Doctor of Pharmacy (PharmD) degree and becoming a clinical pharmacist.

Priya was best known for her boundless professional and personal energy, her unique, pretense-busting humor, and her generous and inclusive spirit. She was undeniably memorable, leaving a lasting impression on everyone who had the fortune of meeting her, and vivifying the lives of her family, friends, classmates, and colleagues.

During her time at WesternU, in addition to her own academic commitments, Priya was a frequent tutor and peer mentor. Priya was also highly involved in student organizations and outreach and was recognized for her tireless advocacy for the pharmacy profession. In addition, Priya was a dedicated and selfless community member who believed staunchly in equitable access to health care. Priya spent much of her free time volunteering on behalf of the underserved, including organizing and conducting vaccine drives for indigent patients.

Priya was a leader, an advocate, a colleague, a friend, and—in every sense—a healer; a provider of care. She is survived by her daughter, Raahi Patel, her husband, Mrunal Patel, her parents, Ramesh and Sujatha Upadhyayula, and the memories kept of her in this school and community she so deeply loved.

With the support of family and friends, the Sripriya (Priya) Upadhyayula Patel Memorial Endowed Scholarship will be presented annually to a College of Pharmacy student who, like Priya, has demonstrated exemplary service at the College, University and/or local and state levels, has participated in and displays a commitment to provide opportunities for underrepresented or disadvantaged populations, and has demonstrated a keen interest in the advocacy of the pharmacy profession. This year’s inaugural recipient of the Sripriya (Priya) Upadhyayula Patel Memorial Endowed Scholarship is Keysi Ekmekciyan, PharmD Class of 2023. For additional information about this scholarship, go to alumnifriends.westernu.edu/PriyaPatel.

Dean's Message

Dear Graduate Nursing Graduating Class of 2022:

Congratulations Graduates! You are graduating at such a special time. This is a time when nurses remain at the forefront of the Covid-19 global pandemic, and are needed now more than ever. The pandemic is slowly turning into an endemic and nurses remain at the heart of the action. As nurses, you put your lives and safety on the line to take care of other people. During your graduate education at WesternU, you learned that nursing is heartfelt work and is dedicated to serving others. Nurses see the world through the lens of humanism and service. As a graduate, you can practice WesternU humanism: to serve, build on your knowledge, and discover new things. You can feel pride in that. During the pandemic, the whole world can see who you are as a nurse and what you do too.

How times have changed during the pandemic. Think back to when your journey began a few years ago at the College of Graduate Nursing and how quickly these years have flown by. As you transition from being a student to being an advanced practice nurse and enter the frontlines of health care, you will encounter people from all walks of life, each with a story to tell, and each with a health issue to address. You are entering advanced graduate nursing – a profession that chooses to take on responsibility, impact, and change lives with every single patient encounter. Whether your next challenge in Nursing is in a Critical Care Unit, Primary Care, Emergency Department, telehealth, teaching, or writing policy, you will be serving others. Each one of you will do so in a variety of ways.

Embrace your future. You will soon be given the chance to shape, improve upon and brighten the future of nursing and health care. Be the best nurse you can be, the best version of yourself, always learning, growing, and becoming. The faculty and staff are so proud of you and how you are changing the face of health care as a WesternU nurse.

Mary Lopez, PhD, MSN

College of Optometry

Dean's Message

Dear College of Optometry Graduating Class of 2022:

Congratulations Graduates! I am so pleased to be able to extend my heartfelt congratulations to you, your families, and your supporters who have been by your side over your educational journey. Together, you have been a model of unity and have demonstrated the power of resilience. You have experienced a time of tremendous personal and professional growth, while our society, our health care systems, and our profession have all undergone a remarkable transformation.

I am proud of each one of you for the way that you have overcome the challenges that these past few years have presented. You have faced incredible obstacles and found a way over, under, around, or even through every barrier standing in the way of accomplishing your goals. You never gave up, and today you are realizing your dreams because of that perseverance.

You graduate today at a time when our profession has never had such a broad scope of practice, access to so much technology, and a deep partnership with our interprofessional colleagues. These three things ensure that you will provide the best possible care for your future patients. I look forward to watching you in the years to come because I know that you will leave your mark in this world. The future looks bright because of your talents that you are contributing.

Dean's Message

Dear College of Veterinary Medicine Graduating Class of 2022:

Congratulations Graduates! It is time to be optimistic, not just about the future, but also for the present. Your successful journey through our professional program was literally littered with surprising challenges that required extraordinary adaptations and perseverance.

None of us foresaw the advent of the global crisis we are presently experiencing. I am sure that there were times when you felt the world was against you! The hardship of developing your professional skills in imposed isolation and protective protocols must have been difficult to bear, and yet you succeeded. Your mettle has been tested and you have more than survived – you accomplished your goal! Your aggregate experiences identify you as one of the more unique classes of graduates ever to enter the profession of veterinary medicine.

It is time to be optimistic. I am writing this message (on behalf of the college faculty and staff) with the pleasurable expectation that we will see each other in a face-to-face graduation ceremony – the first since 2019. We should rejoice in the improvement of our environment and genuinely enjoy the moment with each other.

The CVM faculty is confident in your competence. We are impressed with your tenacity, survival skills, and resilience. We are ecstatic about your success and cannot wait to see what you do with your training. We are proud of you! We look forward to acknowledging your accomplishment in person.

Enjoy this day – it should be a celebration of a successful end of an arduous journey and a somber recognition that you are about to begin a new phase of your life.

You have our heartfelt congratulations!

Dear COMP and COMP-Northwest DO Graduating Class of 2022:

Congratulations to the Class of 2022 on your graduation from Medical School. This culmination of hard work, dedication, and perseverance represents a tremendous milestone in your life. On behalf of all of us at COMP and COMP-Northwest, let me join your families and friends in sharing our pride in all of you for this hard-earned accomplishment.

Over these last four years you experienced unprecedented events no other medical school graduates ever had to endure during your continued journey in the house of medicine. The global pandemic created the backdrop for societal changes that was never before experienced by medical students. The global lockdown resulted in social isolation from family members and support groups, to include your classmates and faculty. You had to adapt to the challenge of an online learning format, which is especially noteworthy given the hand-on requirements of our curriculum. As a medical student entering into your clinical years, you had to adapt to online virtual training for a few months, then prepare for clinical training in all disciplines of medicine both in-patient and out-patient settings, while avoiding contracting this pathogen. Numerous other events created an impediment to your medical education, some of you had to endure a once in a hundred-year devastating fire with displacement of yourselves or families.

Your class embraced these challenges and developed a resiliency that will carry with you during the lifelong journey as you pursue your medical career. You not only endured, but your class leadership also promoted the inclusion of diversity and equity throughout the curriculum. Despite these impediments, all of you worked extremely hard to assure your preparation was complete for your next phase of medical training and your medical residency. Again, my congratulations to your class with the outstanding Match and placement into residencies.

Each of you were carefully selected to attend COMP and COMP-Northwest, and each of you are more than qualified and prepared for this next phase and journey in your career. You will stand shoulder to shoulder with other medical school graduates, and you will shine. Your residency will be your next phase in your career, and you will hone your clinical skills based on your selected field of study. You must however begin to adopt a “work-life” balance. Although the rigors of residency will be tremendous, especially in the beginning, you must begin to take time for yourself, your family, and your friends. Continue to nurture these relationships with your colleagues, they will be lifelong.

From all of us at COMP and COMP-Northwest, we wish you all the very best with a lifetime of good health, wellness, and professional fulfillment as you care for your patients and positively impact your communities.

Please always remember as Dr. Crone always stated, “at the end of every thought, every action, every deed, there is your patient”.

We are proud of you! Congratulations, Graduates!

Acting Dean, College of Osteopathic Medicine of the Pacific and COMP-Northwest

In Memoriam

Michael Joseph Hynds, originally of Indianapolis, Indiana, made Oregon his home in 2017 when he matriculated at WesternU COMP-Northwest. Extremely dedicated to his studies, Michael took pride in staying in the top 10% of his class and being on the Dean's list year after year. He was active in many club activities, through which we saw his leadership skills emerge and shine.

Michael made a lasting impact on many classmates, junior medical students, faculty and staff. His passing on December 16, 2021, left a deep void in the hearts of his family in Indiana and here in Oregon as well.

Truly, Michael never knew a stranger. He dropped in on faculty during open office hours, sometimes to seek greater knowledge and advice and always to thank them for their service and contributions to his education and journey. Michael was an extraordinarily talented photographer with a keen eye for beauty in the most ordinary places. He generously shared his photography with everyone to enjoy. Many of his photographs grace the hallways of COMP-Northwest.

In his second year, Michael was selected to serve as a Teaching Assistant for the Clinical Medicine and Reasoning course where he patiently facilitated the first-year students' learning. Michael frequently gave of his own time to help tutor students in need. He was invested in the success of others just as much as he was committed to his own.

Michael had a driving passion for medicine, developing a strong connection to surgery and had a bright future as a surgeon. Most of all, Michael wanted to serve his patients well. He dazzled his preceptors with impressive medical knowledge, great bedside manner and a natural ability to instantly make patients feel comfortable. Michael also demonstrated the attitude and professionalism that would have made him an exceptional osteopathic physician.

On Friday, May 27, 2022, at the WesternU COMP-Northwest commencement ceremony, Michael will be posthumously awarded his DO degree. Dr. Michael J. Hynds will forever live in our hearts and will be missed by faculty, staff and students who were touched by his laughter, humor and kindness.

With the support of family and friends, the Michael J. Hynds Memorial Scholarship will be presented annually to a graduating COMP-Northwest student who, like Michael, has high academic achievement and displays both a passion for medicine and leadership in and out of the classroom. Helping other students realize their dreams of becoming a DO would have made Michael smile. This year's inaugural recipient of the Michael J. Hynds Memorial Scholarship is Lisa Qui, DO '22. The Osteopathic Oath

I do hereby affirm my loyalty to the profession I am about to enter.

I will be mindful always of my great responsibility to preserve the health and life of my patients, to retain their confidence and respect both as a physician and a friend who will guard their secrets with scrupulous honor and fidelity, to perform faithfully my professional duties, to employ only those recognized methods of treatment consistent with good judgment and with my skill and ability, keeping in mind always nature's laws and the body's inherent capacity for recovery.

I will be ever vigilant in aiding the general welfare of the community, sustaining its laws and institutions, not engaging in those practices which will in any way bring shame or discredit upon myself or my profession.

I will give no drugs for deadly purposes to any person, though it be asked of me.

I will endeavor to work in accord with my colleagues in a spirit of progressive cooperation and never by word or by act cast imputations upon them or their rightful practices.

I will look with respect and esteem upon all those who have taught me my art.

To my college I will be loyal and strive always for its best interests and for the interests of the students who will come after me.

I will be ever alert to further the application of basic biologic truths to the healing arts and to develop the principles of osteopathic medicine as taught by my profession.

In the presence of this gathering I bind myself to my oath.
